Re: United States v. Chris Chevere
Criminal Docket No. 03-550 (CBA)

Dear Judge Amon:

On March 3, 2009, Defendant Chris Chevere filed a pro se letter with this Court addressing his violation of supervised release. In his letter, the defendant requested that this Court either order him produced from Virginia, where he is currently incarcerated, to the Eastern District of New York to allow him to address the charges that he violated supervised release, or to appoint counsel who can file the necessary documents to do so. On March 11, 2009, this Court requested that the government show cause why the defendant should not be produced by writ to answer the charges that he violated the terms of his supervised release.

The government does not oppose the production of the defendant from Virginia state custody to address the charges that he violated the terms of his supervised release. The government

*The Government is directed to writ the defendant
into this Court as soon as possible so that he may address the supervised release violation*

So ordered 3/23/09

s/Hon. Carol B. Amon will submit a writ requesting that the defendant be produced into this district to address the violation charges.

Respectfully submitted,

BENTON J. CAMPBELL
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
